

MORGAN MASSIE

ABOUT MORGAN

Morgan Massie is a powerhouse speaker, award-winning leadership executive, and international best-selling author whose work lives at the intersection of authentic leadership, strategic visibility, and connected communication. She is the co-author of The Five Coaching Conversations and the founder of Leadership and Training Concierge, as well as the co-owner of Empowered Ventures, a national directory and platform supporting women-owned businesses.

Morgan has spoken on some of the world's most respected stages—including TEDx (soon to be twice as of November, 2025), Oxford University, and Columbia University—and her thought leadership has been featured in Forbes, CEO Magazine, Authority Magazine, and more. She has also appeared as an international best-selling author on the NASDAQ Times Square billboard.

Currently pursuing her PhD in Business Management and Leadership, Morgan leads with connection and partnership in mind. She believes the most impactful speakers don't lead with ego or certainty—but with curiosity, clarity, and the courage to elevate others through insight and action.

She is known for her signature motto: "Do what you love in service of those who love what you do." Her delivery is always grounded, relatable, and transformational—designed to make a lasting, meaningful impact for audiences. Morgan is committed to co-creating value with the venues, conferences, and communities she speaks to—ensuring every talk delivers insight, relevance, and resonance.

WHAT AUDIENCES ARE SAYING

"Morgan is a powerful, engaging speaker who creates connection in a room instantly. Her energy is magnetic, and her message is both practical and moving."

"You are a delightful speaker. Your presence and authenticity along with your passion for the material are evident. I appreciated how you rolled with the quirks in our Leadership Training Cohort and brought humor and insight to every moment."

"This is exactly what I needed for my next phase of growth. Thank you for the slides, the training, and the insight."

"Morgan has a gift for distilling the complex into something clear, human, and actionable. Her presence is rooted in deep care, credibility, and service."
